DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation are correct.

These issues have come up now probably because Trump is against illegal immigration and many people don't approve of his decisions. Also, he is a celebrity type person and he doesn't know so much about politics as much as every other president. But this won't stop him because he wants to fix all of the issues happening especially with terrorism to make America great and safe again. In addition, we are heading into the time where no one will be happy with the outcomes because Trump is making so many decisions that we may sometimes like or not like at all, there is no in between. I think it will create a major split in this country for a long while until people start realizing that he is doing this for the better of all Americans. I also believe that it will place citizens against one another because of what they think Trump will do to this country. In my opinion another topic at the forefront of concern is terrorism. This is because terrorism has been happening for a long time but now it has been getting out of control especially with ISIS.
